COMPANY. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.
The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a eash insurance for two years, the insured saves one eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the inness, enables us to offer our services with confidence sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged feb 19-tf by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to ARTHUR HERBERY. Year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering propeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

D. W. EVANS & CO. No. 677 Broadway, New York. K. B. A WORD OF EXPLANATION those who have known us under the style of Evan's & Co. The business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York City, is the oldest establish ed house in the country, and is known world wide as the original "EVANS & CO'S GIFT BOOK-STORE." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity, to advertise under the same name, to increase their trade—to protect the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House and though many advertise under the name of Evans 4 Co., the firm constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, is the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future, we shall use and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law. D. W. EVANS & CO., 677 Broadway, New York. New York, my 18-2aw3m

TO THE MOCKING-BIRD. [From Dwight's Journal of Music.] Carolling bird, that merrily, night and day, Tellest thy raptures from the rustling spray, And wakest the morning with thy varied lay,

Singing thy matins—
When we have come to hear thy sweet oblation Of love and joyance from thy sylvan station, Why, in the place of musical cantation,

Balk us with pratings? We stroll by moonlight in the dusky forest, Where the tall cyprus shields thee, fervent chorist! And sit in haunts of Echoes, when thou pourest

Thy woodland solo,

Music and discord join to mock the senses, Repeated from the tree-tops and the fences, From hill and hollow. A hundred voices mingle with thy clamor; Bird, beast, and reptile take part in thy drams;

Outspeak they all in turn without a stammer-Brisk Polyglot! Voices of Killdeer, Plover, Duck, and Dotterel; Notes bubbling, hissing, mellow, sharp, and guttu-

And all untaught. The Raven's croak, the chirping of the Sparrow, The scream of Jays, the creaking of Wheelbarrow, And hoot of Owls—all join the soul to harrow, And grate the ear.

We listen to thy quaint soliloquizing, As if all creatures thou wert catechizing, Tuning their voices, and their notes revising, From far and near. Sweet bird! that surely lovest the noise of folly;

With sound prodigious! And emulate the hinge and spinning jenny, Making night hideous! Provoking melodist! why canst thou breathe us

No thrilling harmony, no charming pathos, No cheering song of love without its bathos? The Furies take thee-Blast thy obstreperous mirth, thy foolish chatter, Gag thee, exhaust thy breath, and stop thy clatter, And change thee to a beast, thou senseless prater? Nought else can check thee!

A lengthened pause ensues-but hark again! From the new woodland, stealing o'er the plain, Comes forth a sweeter and a holier strain! Listening delighted The gales breathe softly, as they bear along The warbled treasure—the delicious throng

As love is plighted. The Echoes, joyful from their vocal cell, Leap with the winged sounds o'er hill and dell, With kindling fervor, as the chimes they tell To wakeful Even-They melt upon the ear; they float away-

They rise, they hasten, they delay, And hold the listener with bewitching sway, Like sounds from Heaven! A Boy's Definition of the Ohio .- A correspondent writes us as follows: "I heard the other day a clergyman telling of his experience as a school-teacher in Cincinnati, some years ago. He gave to a school of small boys, as a subject for composition, 'The Ohio River,' and one little fellow brought in the following; He was born at the creation. His father is the Alleghany, and his mother is Monongahela. He is bigger than both his parents. It is not known when he will die."

An actor with a very homely phiz was playing Mithridates, when a beautiful young captive said to him "Ah, my lord, you change countenance." Hook, who was in the pit, exclaimed; "Don't stop him; him for heaven's sake let him!"

Zer To Consumptives .- The advertiser hav ing been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe Lung Affection, and that dread disease, Consumption,—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescrip-tion used (free of charge,) with directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure Cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription will please address. REV. EDWARD A. WILSON

20 FOR THE CAMP MEETING .- The unersigned having consented to take a company to the Fairfax Camp Meeting, to commence on the 19th inst., will be assisted by James M. Benton. Persons intending to join the company and board with us, will leave their names with Mr. Wm. N. Berkley, or the undersigned, at as early a day as practicable, that we may make our arrangements ccordingly. [aug 10-5t*] J. H. MONROE. A. JOHN A. FIELD begs leave to remind
